Scope and Content

The Dora Whiteside Collection consists of 1 cu. ft. of genealogical index manuscripts, notes, and various papers related to Whiteside’s research, 1965-2002. The bulk of the collection consists of her rough manuscripts of various indexes, including birth, death, cemetery, census, homestead, marriage, mortuary, and official records intended for use in Sharlot Hall Museum. Much of the material is identical to the genealogical indexes she donated to the archives by Whiteside after the completion of her publications.
